The Atlantic Young Breeders School is an excellent opportunity for young dairy adults to learn about marketing, pedigrees, nutrition, reproduction, cow evaluation, sire selection, Cattle purchasing and sales.

There will be farm tours where participants can apply the knowledge they have learned in the workshops. Participants will be paired into groups of 4 or 5 and given a mock farm to analyze. Participants will prepare a presentation to be presented on the last day. The presentation will be based on the group's ideas for improving the farm.

Based on quizzes and team presentations individual and team winners will be rewarded with a travel opportunity.
