

NOTICE TO MILK PRODUCERS

Nominations to Fill Vacancies on the Dairy Farmers of Prince Edward Island Board

During the month of January 2012, nominations will be received from registered milk producers to fill two positions on the Dairy Farmers of Prince Edward Island Board that will be vacated by the expiration of terms in office of Ranald MacFarlane, Summerside District and John Bysterveldt, Charlottetown District. Both producers are eligible for re-election.

To be eligible for nomination, a producer must be registered with the Board on January 31, 2012, and be a resident of, or assigned to, the district which he/she proposes to represent. A producer must be nominated by five producers registered in the district for which an election is being held. The nominee must indicate in writing his/her willingness to serve.
